I've collected more answers of what people think we should play tap in's because your friends can get you back in the game. Some of your friends have played this game for many years, some like Hayden learned at 8ish. To finish up my article I've asked Lyla Stuart and Hayden Purr if there's any ways to improve GagaBall. Hayden Purr answered that we should make it that you can hit the ball twice but the third time you would be out and we should clarify the rules better. Lyla Stuart said that we should get a mat or something soft to stop all the injury'
